THE officers and men of the Recruit Training Command at Great Lakes welcome you to the weekly recruit graduation review. This review climaxes basic training and affords the recruits an opportunity to demonstrate with pride the military skills, teamwork, and individual self-reliance acquired during this period. These men will soon be ordered to the Navy's Operating Forces both ashore and afloat, and will take their places as a part of the Navy's Team for Peace. Your Nation and your Navy are proud of these men who have answered their country's call to duty by serving in the United States Navy.
